

Group Booking Policy

We do require credit card details as security for your group booking (8+ people), unfortunately experience dictates that we must take this precaution.

This also applies to bookings for Sunday yum cha seating.

Nothing will be debited from your card, however we do require a minimum of 48 hours notice from any cancellations or reduction in numbers.

Failure to do so will incur a cancellation fee of $20 per person. Outside of this time frame there is no charge. Cancellation fees will be credited to you in the form of a voucher to use at another time.

We are unable to accept split bills- a maximum of two credit /debit card per group is accepted.

If making a booking for Sunday yum cha, we do require your credit card details.
